Ans. Travelling by school bus can have several advantages. By using school bus student can reach school on time. We can use the travel time to make some good friends to discuss our day or share ideas with. We can also use the time to plan to day. By using school bus number of vehicles can be minimize on the road.

This will lead to lesser pollution and smoother traffic during such hour. Pollution can also be controlled by using the school bus. It can be minimized.

If more students decide to use the bus there will be fewer vehicles on the roads. Use of school bus have many advantage in it self. However travelling by bus also has some disadvantages. School bus pick up each and every student from their door step. The journey can take a long time, as the bus will have to drop several children at their destinations. The school should have its own buses and in sufficient quantity.

Buses can get crowded and noisy if the school does not have enough buses. When student use school bus, It is possible that. We can read books or discuss films too. It is fun. Besides the above disadvantages it is better to use school bus. I prefer travellings by bus because I can meet my friends and often plan my work with them.
